

Summer Holiday Homework

Dear Parent

We should always remind ourselves that "Children will not remember us for the gifts we shower upon them but will always cherish the time you spend with your little ones."

Summer vacations are an ideal opportunity for you to spend some time with your child and help to develop his/her motor skills and concentration. Keeping this in mind, our teachers have designed fun worksheets for our little kids to revise learnt concepts as well as to engage themselves in meaningful pursuits that will enhance their comprehension and reasoning skills.

Having this mind set we have designed a bunch of productive and fun - filled activities in the holiday homework. It is essential to channelize their energy with positive approach and in the right direction.

This will foster curiosity, develop creativity, enhance knowledge and instill the joy of learning among them.

Enhance Oratory Skills

Communication skills play a pivotal role in grooming the overall personality of the children. Let's motivate them to converse in English and to help him / her get acquainted with the language. Give more English words to increase her/his vocabulary. Motivate them to answer your questions in simple but full sentences.

Let's encourage the kids to use magic words (sorry, thank you, excuse me, please) in different situations on regular basis. Remember, the more you use these words so will your children.

Use these sentences regularly: How are you? I'm good. Thank You.

1. The Oak Tree

Story Link: https://youtu.be/_6mlmRJHxNo?si=FVlwUDsFKdgXtUwg

One hot day, two hikers are walking in the dry, brown hills. They have been walking all day, and they are tired and hungry.

They see a tree in the distance.

"I am sooooo hungry!" says one hiker. "Do you think that's an apple tree? I want a big, crunchy, red apple!"

"Nah, that's not an apple tree," says the other. "It's a pear tree! Pears are my favourite. I want a sweet, juicy, yellow pear!"

But when they arrive at the tree, there are no apples. Or pears either. In fact, there is no fruit at all.

"Aw, boo!" says one hiker. "It's a useless oak tree!"

Just then, the sky turns grey and it starts to rain. The two hikers run under the oak tree to stay dry. It rains and rains, but the oak tree is like a big umbrella. The hikers don't get wet.

They wait under the oak tree for the rain to stop. Day turns into night.

"I'm cold," says one hiker. "We should make a fire. Help me collect some wood!"

Luckily, there are many old branches under the oak tree. The two hikers collect the branches and make a nice campfire out of them. They sit beside the fire to warm themselves.

"I'm tired," says one hiker. "We should sleep here tonight. Help me make a bed!"

The hikers make a bed out of soft, green oak leaves. They snuggle into the leaves and fall asleep.

The rain falls and the wind blows, but the hikers are comfortable, warm and dry — under the "useless" oak tree.

Moral of the Story:

Sometimes the best gifts aren't what we originally hoped for.
